SHIPPING NEWS FROM OF THE WOR

COMPETING LINES

Further Slump in Carrying Trade Looked For-Crop Revival Awaited.

The Shipping Board will take advantage of a let down in ocean freight business, looked for in the next few weeks, to consolidate some of its services and eliminate competing operators, it was learned yesterday. The States Marine Company of Baltimore will be the first stricken from the list, leaving the board's services to Scandinavian ports from the north Atlantic to the Moore & McCormack Company, the Susquehanna Steamship Company and C. H. Sprague & Co.

Appointed to Station.

Special Dispatch to The New York Herald.
CAPE MAY, May 6.—Capt. J. J. Hutson of the Coast Guard cutter Kickapoo, here of many rescues off the Jersey, Delaware and Virginia coasts, has been relieved of sea duty and appointed assistant inspector of Coast Guard stations, with headquarters at Norfolk. His territory extends from North Carolina to Cape Henlopen, Del. Capt. Hutson will be relieved by Lieut. R. C. Weightman, who has been stationed at Coast Guard headquarters at Washington,
Capt. Hutson and the crew of the Kickapoo saved more than $1,250,000 worth of marine property off the coast in the last six months. On February 8 in a gale he responded to the distress call of the former army transport Northern Pacific, which burned and sank off Five Fathom Bank lightship. He also went to the assistance of the steamer Narbo, two submarines in trouble and several schooners, besides intercepting the British rum running tug Granville and convoying her into the Delaware breakwater, where she was held for several weeks.

A banquet will probably be tendered by the civic bodies of this city to Capt. Hutson before he takes up his new dutles.

Special Dispatch to The New York Herald.

north Atlantic to the Moore & McCormonance Company, the Susquehanna Steamship Company and C. H. Sprague & Co.

Present plans also call for the withdrawal of Shipping Board vessels now operated to European ports by the Strachan Shipping Company of Jacksonville and to Pacific coast ports and Honolulu by the Matson Navigation Company of Baltimore. Either the Bull port Steamship Company of Jacksonville and to Pacific coast ports and Honolulu by the Matson Navigation Company of Baltimore. Either the Bull before the board in Washington.

The fall off in cargoes in the last two weeks has been pronounced. Up to recently the freight markets were colivened by the heavy movement of flour and general merchandise to the Black Sea and other Near East trach has been considerably curtailed.

Movement of grain is confined mainly to the to the Company of the Conding at the Canadian port. Some business may come to New York, it is hoped, as a result of the opening to navigation of the State Barge Canal. The current depression has affected time charters, as was shown by the two fixtures reported yesterday at a rate of 4s. 9d. a ton, as sagainst the recently prevailing rate of 5s.

Little improvement is looked for in shipping circles until the coming of the sweet calling feeling among freight conferences particularly close consideration is being given to the competition from outside ilmes, notably the United States Navigation Company and the American Metals Transport Company. Measures to combat this competition are being discussed.
